During the mid-semester vacation in March 2024, the short-term mission team embarked on a journey to the countryside. From the 25th to the 30th of March, the team, consisting of second-grade Bachelor of Theology students led by teacher D. Javhlan, traveled to Bayan Agt soum of Bulgan Province. There, they conducted an evangelistic activity and provided ministry in the church. We kindly ask you to include the family of Elder B. Nyambat in your prayers. Let us pray in the name of the Lord, seeking His glory through the endeavors of the Bright Way Church in Bayan Agt soum.

On February 24, 2024, the students of the Master of Arts in Organizational Management ventured outside the city and arranged a "Winter Fellowship." During this gathering, students openly discussed their challenges and explored the potential for collaboration between UBTC and Mongolian DAI. We extend our gratitude to those who orchestrated this event.

The Overseas Council, an organization dedicated to supporting Bible Schools in Asia, hosted an online seminar on March 8, 15, 22, and 29. The seminar, titled "Excellence for Theological Education: Values that Create Formation," aimed to foster collaboration among Bible Schools in Asia. UBTC enthusiastically participated in this online seminar, presenting a case study on its collaboration with other organizations in Mongolia. Directors and scholars from other Asian Bible Schools commended UBTC's initiative, highlighting that conducting a master's class in cooperation with DAI is a commendable action, well-suited to the country's circumstances.

This time, allow me to introduce G. Myagmarsuren, a student enrolled in the Bachelor of Theology program, currently in their fourth year of study.

How did you believe in Christ?

I came to believe in Christ through a series of experiences in my life. As a child, I attended Christian church services with my grandmother. However, when I was in the first grade at the 62nd school, I had to drop out because my class teacher demanded money that my family couldn't afford. Living with my mother and five siblings, financial difficulties were a constant challenge. Fortunately, I learned about Bright-Future School, which was supported by Christians, and enrolled there.

As I progressed to the 9th grade, I had the opportunity to move into the boarding house associated with the school. Being part of the boarding school community, attending the Eternal Promise Rainbow Church became a regular part of our routine. It was during this time that my faith began to deepen.

Three years ago, I was married in the Eternal Promise Rainbow Church, and now I live with my wife and son, deeply rooted in my faith in Christ.

What church do you attend and what ministry are you doing?

I attend the Eternal Promise Rainbow Church. My journey in ministry began by serving as an assistant teacher at Sunday School after attending the church. Over time, I transitioned to serving in the worship team, where I dedicated myself for a period. Presently, I am in my fourth year serving as a leader in teenage meetings, nurturing and guiding the youth in their spiritual growth.

When and why did you join UBTC?

A turning point in my journey occurred when a leader named Amara visited our church. Around that time, I was presented with an opportunity to study at a Bible School. Initially, I had envisioned pursuing studies at a university or college, but financial constraints stood in my way. It was during a visit from a Korean short-term mission team to our church that things took a providential turn. As I served alongside the team, one of its members expressed a willingness to cover my tuition fees if I chose to pursue further education. Through what I can only describe as God's providence, I was able to enroll and study at UBTC.

How do you feel about studying at UBTC?

Since my initial enrollment in school, my life has undergone significant transformation. Upon entering, I had little knowledge, but now I find myself continuously learning and growing.

The courses on working with children and teenagers have particularly resonated with me. Engaging in practical service has equipped me with valuable skills in interacting with teenagers and effectively communicating with my younger siblings.

Furthermore, I have been inspired to extend my faith and service to the community in which I reside. Consequently, I am contemplating initiating a project aimed at positively transforming my living environment.

What to do in the future?

After graduation, my intention is to apply the knowledge and skills I have acquired to the best of my ability. Currently, I am serving as an evangelist for the congregation, and if the opportunity arises for me to become a pastor, I am ready to embrace it wholeheartedly. My commitment is to serve my church with utmost dedication, aligning my actions with God's vision for me.

Additionally, I have recently been blessed with a new baby, a precious gift from God. Balancing the responsibilities of parenthood alongside my academic pursuits, I am working diligently towards graduating this year.

I humbly request your prayers for a successful completion of my studies and for God's guidance as I embark on this new chapter of serving my family and congregation. Your support and prayers are greatly appreciated.

The UBTC Alumni Association is committed to fulfilling its mission of connecting alumni with their alma mater, fostering connections among alumni, and facilitating engagement with the Alumni Association. To achieve this, the association engages in three main areas of activity:

1. Continuous Theological Education: Twice a year, training seminars are organized to provide graduates with ongoing theological education, enabling them to deepen their knowledge and skills.
2. Alumni Connection Events: Annually, a sports day is organized, along with biannual visits to alumni serving in various communities. These events aim to foster connections among alumni and provide opportunities for networking and support.

3. Community Engagement: The association creates opportunities for alumni to collaborate with their home school through prayer, cooperation, and financial investment, strengthening ties between alumni and their communities.

In line with these initiatives, UBTC Alumni Association recently organized an "Ecotheology" seminar from March 25-28, 2024. A notable feature of this seminar was this special lecture of Dr Paul Woods from UK OMF. Attendees included alumni, teachers, employees, and board members of UBTC. The seminar provided a platform for collaboration and shared learning among generations of UBTC alumni. The association extends its gratitude to all members for their participation and support.

Additionally, on this special occasion, Dr. Paul Woods, who taught us during the Alumni Conference, was invited from the Department of Philosophy and Religion at the University of Mongolia to deliver an open lecture on the topic of the "Christian Doctrine of the Trinity." We are deeply grateful for his presence and expertise here in Mongolia.

The "MULTIMEDIA CHAPEL AND ONLINE LEARNING ROOM" project has been successfully completed, culminating in a thanksgiving service held on March 21, 2024, attended by students, teachers, and supporting partners of UBTC. During the chapel service, the project leader, graduate Y. Munkh-Erdene, presented a comprehensive project report, allowing us to reflect on the journey and express gratitude to God and all those who contributed to the project's success.

UBTC is elated to provide students with a comfortable environment conducive to both study and worship. The addition of online capabilities enables us to engage in worship services and seminars seamlessly. We are deeply grateful for this opportunity and extend our appreciation to everyone involved in making this project a reality.
